Re: GOJO v. Innovative Biodefense
15 CV 2946 (PAC)

SO ORDERED: 5-11-15

HON. PAULA A. CROTTY
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Dear Judge Crotty:

We represent Aquarius Global Energy Partners, formerly a defendant in this action. The stipulation that you so ordered on April 24, 2015 required counsel for Aquarius and plaintiff to develop a form of corrective notice within seven days, which we did; it required Aquarius to disseminate that notice promptly thereafter, which it did; and it required Aquarius to submit a report within fourteen days of the Order detailing the "manner and form in which Aquarius has complied with its obligation to issue corrective notice."

✓ I respectfully request an additional seven days in which to submit that report because, until a few minutes ago, I had thought the report was due fourteen days from our agreement on the corrective notice, and not fourteen days from the date of the order. I immediately requested (by email) consent from counsel for GOJO, and while I expect to receive their consent, I have not yet received it. I am writing without having that response because I wanted to submit my request before the expiration of the fourteen days provided in the stipulation and order.

Respectfully,

Jamie B.W. Stecher
